In the event that any member's behavior in the conduct of CoC business is deemed by another CoC member or citizen to be inappropriate or illegal, the case will be referred to the CoC Board for investigation and possible referral to the member's employing supervisor for any personnel or legal action that may be warranted.

Updated 11/10/2020

Previous Version: FRCoC Bylaws, Adopted 2/12/2020

Recusal Process: The CoC recognizes that, from time to time, a voting member may have a need to recuse themselves from voting or otherwise participating in some action of the CoC due to some conflict of interest that may preclude the member from taking an objective, unbiased action (e.g. casting a vote). CoC members are required to recuse themselves from voting or other actions based on the conflict of interest guidelines enumerated herein or the guidelines of their own employing agency's Code of Conduct (if stricter than those adopted here).

Conflict of Interest

All members of the CoC must comply with federal conflict of interest requirements as defined under 24 CFR §578.95(b). In summary, these conflict of interest considerations apply to:

- Procurement: For the procurement of property (goods, supplies, or equipment) and services, the recipient and its sub-recipients must comply with the codes of conduct and conflict of interest requirements under 24 CFR 85.36 (for governments) and 24 CFR 84.42 (for private nonprofit organizations).
- Funding Decisions: No CoC member may participate in or influence discussions or resulting decisions concerning the award of a grant or other financial benefits to the organization that the member represents.
- Organizational Conflict: An organizational conflict of interest arises when, because of activities or relationships with other persons or organizations, the recipient or sub-recipient is unable or potentially unable to render impartial assistance in the provision of any type or amount of assistance, or when a covered person's, as described in the next section, objectivity in performing work with respect to any activity assisted under this part is or might be otherwise impaired. Such an organizational conflict would arise when a board member of an applicant participates in decision of the CoC concerning the endorsement of or award of a grant, or provision of other financial benefits, to the organization that such member represents. It would also arise when and if an employee of a recipient or sub-recipient participates in making rent reasonableness determinations under §578.49(b)(2) and §578.51(g) and housing quality inspections of property under §578.75(b) that the recipient, sub-recipient, or related entity owns.
- Other conflicts. For all other transactions and activities, the following restrictions apply: No covered person, meaning a person who is an employee, agent, consultant, officer, or elected or appointed official of the recipient or its sub-recipients and who exercises or has exercised any functions or responsibilities with respect to activities assisted under this part, or who is in a position to participate in a decision-making process or gain inside information with regard to activities assisted under this part, may obtain a financial interest or benefit from an assisted activity, have a financial interest in any contract, subcontract, or agreement with respect to an assisted activity, or have a financial interest in the proceeds derived from an assisted activity, either for themselves or for those with whom they have immediate family or business ties, during their tenure or during the one-year period following their tenure.

- Exceptions. Upon the written request of the CoC or member thereof, HUD may grant an exception to applicable federal requirements on a case-by-case basis, according to criteria and a process set forth further in federal regulations (see: 24 CFR § 578.95 Conflicts of interest).
